Customer instructions (non dealer) – Read before signing:

- Ensure that the dealer completes all the details of the transfer including the date of delivery and has informed you if the vehicle was recorded on the written-off vehicles register. Refer to the VicRoads website for more information.
- If you are buying the vehicle from a dealer, ensure that the dealer declared the market value of the vehicle and has obtained and specified the number of a Certificate of Roadworthiness (RWC) issued in Victoria not more than 30 days before the date of delivery.
- Ensure that you provide your customer details as follows:
 - All the questions have been appropriately ticked and answers provided.
 - The name on the form matches that of your driver's licence. Company names must be as registered with the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC). A trading name or an Australian Business Number (ABN) must not be used to register a vehicle.
 - Full particulars have been provided. Temporary overseas visitors are to provide mobile phone and email address to ensure that they can be contacted by VicRoads whilst in Australia should any issues arise surrounding the registration transfer.
 - If all the details are correct, please read the privacy statement, then sign and date the form.
- Private buyers must pay the motor vehicle duty and the transfer fee to the dealer.
- Keep the customer copy of the completed form. The dealer will submit the original form to VicRoads on your behalf. For private buyers, the dealer will also submit the RWC and your paid fees to VicRoads.

If you are the buyer, you will receive confirmation by mail within 28 days if your transfer is processed successfully. If no confirmation has been received, contact VicRoads on 13 11 71.
