Notes for applicants for the registration of recreation vessels

Vessels to be registered

It is an offence for the owner or master of a recreational vessel that is equipped with an engine or motor capable of being used for propulsion and to cause or allow the vessel to be operated on Victorian waters without being registered, unless exempt under the Marine Safety Act 2010 (Vic).

Registered operator

A vessel must be registered in one name only. In the case of an individual, the registered operator must be fourteen years of age or older. If not an individual, then the registered operator must be a corporation or an incorporated association.

Fees

The Boating Facilities and Safety Education fee is calculated on the overall length of the vessel and is payable as a prerequisite to registration.

For information on registration and transfer fees, please call 13 11 71. Fees and applications may be lodged at any VicRoads Customer Service Centre or mailed to VicRoads, GPO Box 1644, Melbourne 3001.

Display of registration numbers

It is an offence to operate a vessel that is required to be registered on Victorian waters unless its registration number and label are clearly displayed as detailed below. On-the-spot fines may be imposed for non-compliance.

The vessel's registration label must be fixed, and remain fixed, in a conspicuous position on the outside or upper part of the vessel.

The registration number assigned to your vessel must be painted or displayed on the outside of the hull of the vessel in the following manner:

- on each side of the hull of the vessel, forward of the beam, so that the highest part of each digit commences at a point no more than 75 millimetres below the gunwale; and
- in characters of not less than 150mm in height and of proportionate breadth; and
- in a colour in contrast to the surface on which it is painted or displayed.

For operators of personal watercraft the registration number must be displayed in the following manner:

- in characters of a minimum of 100mm in height and of proportionate breadth; and
- in a colour in contrast to the surface on which it is displayed; and
- on each side of the hull of the vessel, forward of the beam and so that the highest part of each digit commences at a point no more than 25 millimetres below the gunwale

Transfer of vessel registration

A Vessel registration transfer form must be completed and signed by both the buyer and seller and returned to VicRoads within 14 days.

Exemptions from the requirement to be registered and payment of the Boating Facilities and Safety Education fee apply to:

- a recreational tender;
- a vessel that does not have an engine or motor that is used or is capable of being used for propulsion;
- a commercially operated vessel;
- a vessel which-
 - is temporarily being operated on State waters; and
 - is registered in another State or a Territory; and
 - displays in accordance with an Act or regulation of another State or Territory an identifying plate, mark or number issued or allocated by the corresponding authority in that State or Territory for the vessel;
- a vessel that-
 - is temporarily being operated on State waters; and
 - is exempt from registration as a vessel in another State or a Territory in which the owner of the vessel ordinarily resides;
- a recreational vessel with an engine or motor used or capable of being used for propulsion that is under the control of a manufacturer or dealer who has a special identification plate issued under regulation 25.

Note: In accordance with the Marine Safety Act 2010 and Marine Safety Regulations 2012 there is no provision for a refund of the Boating Facilities and Safety Education fees.

- Registered owners are required to notify VicRoads within 28 days of any changes to the vessel details provided with the registration application. Penalties for non-compliance apply.
- Registered owners are required to notify VicRoads within 14 days of any changes to his or her name or address. Penalties for non-compliance apply.
- A vessel must not be operated unless it is 'fit for purpose'. Refer to regulation 27 of the Marine Safety Regulations 2012 for more details.
